Army Specialist Five William F. Shirley, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Shirley, 1437 W. 221st St., is participating with other personnel from the 101st Airborne Division in Exercise Quick Strike at Fort Campbell and Camp Breckenridge, Ky. The exercise was scheduled to end Saturday.

Quick Strike is designed to exercise further the division's on-the-mark readiness as one of the major units of the Strategic Army Corps (STRAC). Helicopter river crossings, ground and sky raids and ranging patrols are being conducted during the exercise.

Specialist Shirley, a cook in Company D of the division's 506th Infantry at Fort Campbell, entered the Army in 1953.

The 25-year-old soldier is a 1952 graduate of Narbonne High School in Lomita. His wife, Virginia, lives in Clarksville, Tenn.

Army Specialist Four Theodore F. Bagley, son of Mrs. Ann M. Bigley, 24212 Eshelman Ave., Lomita, is participating with other personnel from the 101st Airborne Division in Exercise Quick Strike at Fort Campbell and Camp Breckenridge, Ky.

Specialist Bagley, a senior medical aidman with the division's 326th Medical Company at Fort Campbell, Ky., entered the Army in July 1957. Bagley attended Narbonne High School and was employed by Knolls Construction Co. before entering the Army.

Donald W. Yetts, aviation structural mechanic first class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Wilkins of 4607 Bulova St., and husband of the former Miss Betty M. Petty of Irvington, Calif., returned to Alameda, Calif., March 25, with Fighter Squadron 24 aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Midway after a seven-month tour of duty with the U.S. Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific. Utilizing the F8U "Crusader," the squadron and its crew participated in various operational exercises and visited Hawaii, Japan, Hong Kong and the Philippines.

Monte E. Hastings, son of Ralph J. Hastings of 1851 Pacific Coast Hwy., Lomita, graduated from recruit training March 25 at the Naval Training Center, San Diego.

Army Private Richard G. Farren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Farren, 2323 West 230th St., is undergoing the first cycle of basic Infantry training at this largest West Coast Infantry Training Center. He is assigned to Company B, 9th Battle Group, 3d Brigade, Fort Ord.

The eight week training program consists of courses in general military subjects, individual protection against chemical, biological and radiological attack and defense, as well as training in rifle marksmanship, Infantry tactics, first aid, military justice, maintenance and supply economy.

When the soldier completes the eight weeks in instruction, he will go on to advanced Infantry or specialist training. He entered the Army Feb. 20, 1960.

A 1955 graduate of Torrance High School, Pvt. Farren was employed by the City of Torrance as a light power equipment operator.

Ray L. Eck, apprentice petty officer third class, USN, son of Mrs. Pearl Story of 1130 E. Renton St., graduated March 25 from nine weeks of Recruit Training at the Naval Training Center, San Diego.

Scope of Surfboard Riding Ordinance To Be Widened

The Board of Supervisors, on a motion by Supervisor Burton W. Chace, today widened the scope of its surfboard riding ordinance now being prepared.

Chace said the action of the Board instructing the County Counsel to prepare the ordinance should be broadened to "include not only rules and regulations for surfboard riding but bathing activities as well; and also to establish a minimum approach area for boats to public beaches and use of floatable swim equipment, etc. all such regulations to be for the purpose of intensifying public safety on public beaches."

The County Counsel, Department of Small Craft Harbors and the Department of Parks and Recreation are working cooperatively on the ordinance which was authorized by the Board on January 19.
